Hackers against stereotypes

(Interests of the club beyond the PC to the field of IT forms a unique "creativity" (IRIN

Labib Fahmy - Brussels

Meet every Tuesday evening in a garage for cars is one of the popular neighborhoods of the city of Brussels called the "Hakrspec" (space pirates) .. The door remains open for anyone who wants access to their world, these pirates do not care to break the codes to access computers or access to passwords or bank cards numbers

All these ideas are typical for them and are desperately trying to fight it, do not hesitate in the story the story of starting groups hackers in the eighties of the last century as a reminder that the main objective is always defined as stresses Peter Hermance - A managers Belgian club - of the island, with the assurance that members of the "Alhakrspec" against cyber crime categorically, and will not hesitate to expel any member seeks to piracy is not owned by a computer

?Pirate or hacker

says Pascal, who is the mastermind of the club "I am against this idea that you want to be equal between hackers and pirates. Because of this confusion people feel concerned when they hear the word hacking, knowing that the pirates are the real hiding, The group of Anonymous do not want to be identified , but in this type .of club is not a hiding

He says another member of the hacker is Kalmbda who likes to open a device as radio or television, for example, to see how it works and how it can be improved or .how it can be converted to another device

And confirms Peter Hermance that the main objective of the establishment of the club is "the exchange of knowledge and expertise in the first place, when be a member a new experience in any field related to informatics and technology, we can try to give to others .. It's a matter of give and take," The exchange of .knowledge through organizing training workshops involving interested subscribers

He adds that these workshops are sometimes beyond the fields of computers and electronics to include topics related to Banagarh, cooking, etc., the important thing is to exchange experiences, he said and specialty group to meet her weekly on Tuesdays to answer questions posed by some members regarding issues related to programming or technology. It also raises other projects to be implemented mostly focused on the re-use of electronic materials instead of disposal and what that might mean to harm nature

A scanner for books made from the remains of cleaning machine, (cameras, scanners glass (IRIN

There is a consensus among all members of the Club "Hakrspec" to reject consumerism excessive. In this context, refers to Pascal that "there is in this room many of the members of productions, from eggs to the spokesman bicycle music, through a scanner for books made from the remains of cleaning machine, cameras, auto glass areas

The key issue for the members of the club is to try to creativity, and they look to their beautiful art pieces. And participation in meetings and in the process of implementing an open and collective projects, there is no such thing as personal property or property in the club

The club has a "Hakrspec" in Belgium recipe non-profit association, which pays to rely on the contributions and the contributions of its members who are growing every day, according to managers of the club. There are branches in many Arab countries such as Egypt, Tunisia and Morocco, but it does not exist any connections between the various members of these clubs that retain their freedom to work and the full deal

I notice that there is a desire of the island to adopt the Arabic language without any reference to the English language. Thanks to this trend. But the proposal was referred to the original, and is often in English, through a link mentioning it in this language. For example, The group of Anonymous, a link can be made to refer to the original and it is here necessary. And a double benefit for those who know a foreign language 2

Greet these young people and the natural look of ordinary young people in the Arab countries spend their time how? Sometimes Sports do not read do not know do not practice that trend does not train do not volunteer do not think about not thinking does not seek the will does not does not does not resolve the deficit, which means the ability of destruction. I say very briefly that the sky does not rain gold or silver. Must invest the time to best exploit it and profit no loss, the experience and knowledge is required here and there and in all fields to get to work and the role and function. And only lost (...). sleep or sleeping. Seek 1
